—Mrs. Harold Tubbs' class of the Benevolent society of the Congregational church will hold an all-day meeting at the home of Mrs. Howard Leister on Wednesday.

—The Sunday school class of Mr. George Woodruff of the Methodist church held a sociable at the home of the teacher on West Friendship street last Wednesday evening.

—Mr. B. E. Olds, head of the Boy Scouts, addressed the scholars of the grammar school last Friday afternoon on his war experiences in the Philippines following the Spanish war.

—"The Rose Maiden," dramatized by Mrs. Zoe Prouty Boult, was given by the seniors of Seville high school at the town hall in that village last evening and will be repeated this evening.

—A petition will soon be presented to the county commissioners to have the road from Lester to Erhart piked. It isn't much of a drive now, but when it is piked, thirsty boys can gain a couple of minutes. O you good roads.

—Since the revival services at the Methodist church, an evangelistic group of laymen has been formed with the purpose of taking auto tours throughout the county to assist in holding devotional and revival services on Sunday evenings.

—The Farm Journal, the oldest and largest of the agricultural publications and which now has a circulation of 900,000 copies, has undertaken to make a county directory of Medina county and the work of compiling will be begun in a few days.

—Wm. Coover, until a few weeks ago janitor of Hinckley schools recently suffered a stroke of paralysis and was removed to the county infirmary. He has a small amount of chattels which will be sold and the proceeds used toward his support.

—On Wednesday evening of this week, the Methodist choir gave a staid in honor of the high school graduates connected with the church. There are seven of these. The committee in charge was Mr. Beck, Miss Rachel Jones and Miss Jessie Pocock.

—Attorney Frank Heath appeared before Judge McClure Monday morning to argue for a new trial in the case of Geo. THE DOUBLE ECONOMY OF OUR QUALITY CLOTHES

In every suit or overcoat bought here, you combine the economy of low first cost with the utmost economy of up-keep.

Rigidly tested, thoroughly shrunk, staunchly tailored materials make these clothes of ours hold their shape with a minimum of pressing and petting.

Their elegant finish and smooth-setting firmness is the outer evidence of thru-and-thru QUALITY, and not the mere veneer of a flat-iron.

They will give you the most wear for the least amount of care of any clothes that approach their prices:

Suits $15, $18 and $20
Spring Overcoats and Balmacaans $10, $12 and $15
